

The Women's Faculty Club presents

MISSISSIPPI RED

Film Preview with Documentary Filmmakers
Kelly Duane de la Vega and Jessica Anthony

Meet Emmy nominated and Peabody Award finalist filmmaker Kelly Duane de la Vega and Sundance Producing Fellow Jessica Anthony who will share the inspiration behind their Sundance supported film MISSISSIPPI RED, as well as show select scenes to provide insight into their work and journey.

In the heart of the conservative South, women live poor, die young and have fewer rights or protections than in any other part of the country. MISSISSIPPI RED follows two women from opposing sides of the political aisle as they fight to pass an equal pay law through a resistant male dominated state legislature and in doing so, provides a rare look at feminism through the lens of race, religion and the political establishment in deep red America.

Tuesday, October 2, 2018

5:00-7:00 PM

Women's Faculty Club – Stebbins Lounge

Reservations Required - Room Capacity Limited

RSVP – (510) 642-4175 – womensfacultyclub@gmail.com

Events are complimentary and open to the campus community