

The Women's Faculty Club invites you to our -

Annual Open House

Featuring Ann Thrupp – Executive Director
Berkeley Food Institute

The Institute is a collaboration between Berkeley's School of Natural Resources, Goldman School of Public Policy, School of Public Health, Journalism and the Law School

Tastings of Organic / Sustainable Wines, Appetizers and Chocolates

Tours of Hotel Rooms

Thursday, April 17, 2014, 4:00 – 6:00 PM

Please RSVP – (510) 642-4175 or hotel@womensfacultyclub.com

Ann Thrupp, Executive Director of the Berkeley Food Institute has worked for decades in the fields of agriculture and sustainable development. Ann was a postdoctoral fellow at UC Berkeley, earned her PhD and MA from Sussex University and did undergraduate work at Stanford.

The Berkeley Food Institute is dedicated to “the transition to more resilient and just food systems, from local to global scales.” Activities include the following:

Food Exchange Lecture Series – Topics have included

- Adapting to Climate Change – Farmers at the Frontline
- The Right to Food: Reshaping Policies for Development and Public Health
- Beyond Pesticides: Pesticide-Free Agriculture?
- Open Access: Rethinking Resource Access in the Food System
- Labor and Health: Working Towards a Healthier Food Chain

Policy Agenda

Visiting Fellows

Edible Education Course

Growing Green Awards Program

Seed Grant Program

Student Food Groups and Relevant Classes at UC Berkeley